

SPARTAN SPIRIT
CONQUERS

From
the Spartans of ancient Greece,

Michigan State College athletes
take their name

Program for

"THE SPARTAN"

MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE

Saturday, June 9, 1945

at 10:30 A.M. (EWT)

Master of Ceremonies,

Dean Ernest L. Anthony

Chairman of the Athletic Council

Music . . . Michigan State College Band

Leonard V. Falcone, Director

"The Spartan" . . . Dr. John A. Hannah

President, Michigan State College

Unveiling "The Spartan"

Leo MacCropsey

President, Senior Class

Susan C. Averill

President, Associated Women Students

Remarks

Leonard D. Jungwirth

Sculptor of "The Spartan"

Assistant Professor of Art

Michigan State College

Fight Song

THE SPARTAN CODE

"S" STANDS FOR SPORTSMANSHIP—
SPORTSMANSHIP MEANS
RESPECT—

- Respect for the other fellow.
- Respect for your coach.
- Respect for your teammates.
- Respect for the visiting team members.
- Respect for the officials.
- Respect for the fans.
- Respect for the rules of the game.
- Respect for yourself.