

Extraordinary Gathering of the
GREEK INTERPRETERS OF EAST LANSING
Thursday, May 10th, 1973.

Occasion: Visit of FRANCIS M. NEVINS, JR.
PROFESSOR OF LAW
ST. LOUIS UNIVERSITY

Prof. Nevins, under the sponsorship of the School of Criminal Justice will give two lectures on:
Detective Fiction.

The program is as follows:

- 5:30 COCKTAILS at the PRETZEL BELL
- 6:15 DINNER
- 7:00 RECONSIDERATION of the "MUSKGRAVE RITUAL"
- 8:15 LECTURE : (106 B WELLS HALL)
"The Use and Misuse of Law in Mystery Fiction"

Also, on Thursday in the afternoon, Prof. Nevins will lecture on:

"The Criminal Justice System as Seen by Mystery Writers— And Why they See It That Way."
The lecture will be in Room 104 B Wells Hall
at 3:30 PM, May 10th.

Please call either DONALD YATES (353-0779) or
JOANNE MUELLER (353-1690) if you CANNOT attend!

