

being on the East wall the sun shines through the windows during the morning services and really accentuates their beauty.

Name of Building:

St. Peters church