

We ...appeal to the Black people in this country to take their place as the leading force of the anti-apartheid movement in this country... We are confident that ...Black Americans will become the vital force of all anti-apartheid activities ...We can no longer do without your support, and (the) time for that support is now.

David Ndaba, African National Congress (Interview in the December, 1984 Issue of Black Scholar)
