

*Please Join
The Africa Fund and American Committee on Africa in Celebrating the publication of*

I Will Go Singing

The Life and Struggles for Freedom in South Africa of Walter Sisulu

Thursday, March 29th 2001 6:00pm - 9:00pm

at the home of Jennifer Davis 137 Riverside Drive, Apt.4B, New York City

*Come meet: South African Ambassador Sheila Sisulu Salih Booker, Exec. Dir.
George Houser, Exec. Dir. Emeritus*

Please R.S.V.P. to Nechesa Morgan at 212/785-1024

Directions: Take IRT 1 or 9 to 86th Street. Walk west across West End Avenue. Entrance is on 86th Street.

The book, in a limited edition, is based on the memories of Walter Sisulu, former Secretary General of the African National Congress of South Africa. Nelson Mandela's mentor and his companion in the struggle for freedom and for 26 years in prison. To date, this is the only book-length record of Sisulu's own thoughts and remembrances. It makes clear why Walter Sisulu is looked upon by his peers as the "kingpin in the struggle against apartheid, who always seemed to know just what strategies and tactics were needed to mobilize and organize masses of people for action."

Through the 236 pages of this volume, the fascinating life of Sisulu is spelled out from his birth and early life in the rural Transkei, his introduction to Johannesburg as a mine worker, his discovery of the ANC, his first meeting with Nelson Mandela, his role in the seminal events which led to the birth of a free South Africa - the nonviolent Defiance Campaign, the Treason Trial, the many campaigns against the hated pass laws, his arrest at Rivonia, the subsequent trial which led to his life sentence, and events in the Robben Island prison.

The book records Walter Sisulu's own words in conversation with:

George Houser, Executive Director Emeritus of the American Committee on Africa and The Africa Fund

Herbert Shore, Professor Emeritus of the University of Southern California