

JOIN US IN COMMEMORATING THOSE WHO HAVE DIED
IN THE STRUGGLE AGAINST APARTHEID

CANDLELIGHT MEMORIAL SERVICE

for

SOUTH AFRICAN MARTYRS

Protest the deaths of thousands in the struggle against apartheid. Funeral services have been one of the few channels of protest open to the people of South Africa. Now the government bans their right to mourn the dead.

Sunday, June 14th

Add your voice to the prayers of one of the churches in Oakland adopting a South African martyr.

Tuesday, June 16th
7:00 p.m.

Bethlehem Lutheran Church
959 12th Street, Oakland

Join with us on the eleventh anniversary of the Soweto Uprising.

Program includes:

- Symbolic Candlelight Ceremony
- Readings from "Voices of Rage", a new play by South African playwright Selaelo Maredi
- African Freedom Songs

This commemoration is being sponsored by the Southern African Freedom Through Education Foundation (SAFTE), a new organization being formed to provide college scholarships in the Bay Area to Namibian and South African students. SAFTE is dedicated not only to honoring those who have died in the struggle for freedom, but also in joining with the people of Southern Africa in looking toward a future beyond apartheid.
